

An open-air sculpture exhibition is proposed at this axis. In order to enhance the artistic experience the tree grid is dissolved and the exhibition space is being formed by linear pathways superimposed on each other. The routes are constructed by wooden decks. The sculptural elements are placed on the clearings between the routes taking in to consideration the views and the type of each artistic piece.

